

General Submission Requirements Check List

Send us a separate cover letter that includes:

- Your name, complete address (including postal/zip code), telephone #, e-mail information
- Where you attend school
- Where you found out about The Claremont Review
- The titles of your pieces
- A short bio.

The following is also very important:

- All work submitted should be neatly typed and carefully edited, with the name of the author at the top of the page.
- Fiction should be double-spaced and poems should be on separate pages.
- Please remember to include a word count with your fiction entries.
- All submissions must be accompanied by a self-addressed, stamped envelope (SASE), or they cannot be returned. Submissions from outside Canada (including the USA) must include either International Reply Coupons or Canadian stamps. PLEASE DO NOT PUT AMERICAN POSTAGE ON YOUR SASE- American postage is not valid in Canada. If you cannot purchase an IRC from your local post office, please contact the USPS website, or e-mail me at lmoran@telus.net for further instructions.
